PROPOSALS FOR TANK IRON.

NAVY DEFARTMENT,
BUREAU CONSTRUCTION, EQUIP'T, AND REPAIRS,
May 18, 1853.

SEALED PROPOSALS (endorsed "Proposals for Tank Iron") will be received at this Bureau to 3 o'clock p. m., of the 27th day of June next, for furnishing and delivering at the navy yard at Washington. District of Columbia, free of expense and risk to the United States, the following quantities of the best American iron, required to make six sets of water-tanks for sloops of war, viz:
276,000 pounds of plate iron, one-quarter of an inch thick

276,000 pounds of plate iron, one-quarter of an inch thick
18,000 pounds of boiler rivets, one inch and five eighths long from inside of head, and five eighths diameter
2,000 pounds of boiler rivets, two and one-quarter inches long from inside of head, and five-eighths diameter
1,500 pounds of five-eighths inch round iron.

All the said iron to be delivered on or before the last of September next.

The plate iron must be made from the best charcoal blooms, so that it will stand a two inch flange all round the edge, and kept free from blisters. It must be cut correctly to size, and kept straight and level from the shears, and must bear to turn the flanges lengthwise without cracking. Such as break or crack must be replaced by and at the cost of the contractor.

All to be satisfactory to, and be approved by, the commandant of said navy yard.

Schedules of the iron will be furnished from the Schedules of the iron will be furnished from the said navy yard to the contractor.

The person whose offer may be accepted will be required to enter into contract, which, besides other conditions, will expressly provide that, in case he shall in any respect fail to perform the contract, the same may be, at the option of the United States, declared null and void, without affecting the right of the said United States to recover for defaults which may have occurred; with the stipulation that if default shall be made by the contractor in delivering all or any of the articles contracted for of the quality and at the time and place named, that then, and in that case, the contractor and his sureties will forfeit and pay payment as collateral security for its faithful per-formance. Ninety per centum of each bill, ap-proved in triplicate by the commandant of the said navy yard, will be paid by the navy agent at the point of delivery within thirty days after its presentation to him.

the point of delivery within thirty days after its presentation to him.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee (the responsibility of the guarantor or guarantors to be certified to by a navy agent or other official person, or by some one known to the bureau) that, if the offer be accepted, the bidder or bidders will, within ten days after the receipt of the contract at the post office designated, execute the same, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the articles proposed, agreeably to the cute the same, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the articles proposed, agreeably to the terms specified in this advertisement, or which may be embodied in the contract. The law of 10th August, 1846, forbids the consideration of all proposals not accompanied by such guarantee.

Bidders are particularly cautioned to endorse their offers as above required, that they may be distinguished from other business letters, in order to prevent their being opened before the day appointed.

All offers not made in strict conformity with this advertisement in every particular will be con-sidered or rejected, at the option of the bureau. The person only whose offer may be accepted will be notified, and contract forwarded without delay.
Persons offering are directed to designate the post office through which they desire to be addressed, and the navy agent to whom the contract shall be sent for execution.

All editors authorized to publish this advertisement will be specially notified by this bureau.

None others will be paid for its insertion.

They are known and read in every corner of our country, and are as household words in the mouths of those who pretend to judgment in Literature or taste in Art. The pens of our most accomplished writers, as well as the burins of the ablest artists, are enlisted to enrich and adorn their pages—and all that is now famous in letters or beautiful in engravings, in the world of periodical literature, is owing to the fostering care and lavish expense of these two prominent American periodicals.

and lavish expense of these two prominent American periodicals.

Their imitators fail always in equalling them, for want of public support, and the poor dupes who are led to subscribe to the hastily-born enterprises which spring up every year to delude the public, with promises of wind and words of sound, find that these well-established works are, as yet, the only reliable sources to which they can look for a faithful performance of all contracts entered into with subscribers.

ful performance of all contracts entered into with subscribers.

The publishers of Godey and of Graham have determined that for 1853 they will surpass in the cheapness, elegance and merit of their periodicals, all that has ever been attempted, and as the works are dissimilar, have resolved to place both within the reach of all, who desire to keep thoroughly posted up in the rapidly-improving periodical literature of the age.
